BEARS HAMMER WHEAT AND FORCE RECESSIONS.

LOWER CABLES AND GOOD WEATHER.

Decrease in Corn Receipts Causes a Slight Advance in That Grain.

Wheat values were on the down turn in Saturday's lead market. While there was no great pressure to sell traders were inclined to ease their lines over Sunday. Nearly all of the news justified the bearish sentiment. Cables came lower on reports of improved conditions in the Argentine and receipts here and at other primary points were large. Report that Armour was laying checked the downward movement in the second hour, but later there was reaction, and the close was weak.

Corn advanced on wet weather and decreased receipts at Western points. Speculation was light, but there was a good cash and export inquiry.
